

Camp Independence Packing List:

Item:	Notes:
Underwear/Socks	Bring enough to change daily, plus at least 1 extra.
Blank or Scout-themed(class B) T-shirts	Bring enough to change daily, plus at least 1 extra.
1 long sleeve shirt
shorts	Bring enough to change daily, plus at least 1 extra.
1-2 pairs of long pants.	suggestion... the pants with the zip off legs can fill both shorts/pants requirements.
A complete "Class A" uniform	shirt, den neckerchief, slide, belt, pants or shorts with belt loops, hat (optional)
1 swimsuit	necessary for swimming or for shower house.
2 towels	1 for swimming. 1 for washing. (make sure they don't match)
washcloth, soap, shampoo, deoderant	small sizes work nice for camp. Nothing too overly-perfumey :)
toothbrush, toothpaste, a small cup
shower shoes	flip flops or crocs are ok
comfortable boots	if you buy new ones, please wear them in BEFORE coming to camp. These will be your primary footwear while at camp.
tennis shoes.	nice for in the car, or to change into to give your boots a breather
Rain gear	When you bring it, you never need it. LETS ALL BRING IT PLEASE!
Light jacket	it gets cooler in the evenings and mornings
sleeping bag or blanket/sheets
sleeping clothes	Parent Volunteers, If you do not own a scout uniform shirt- this is ok.
sunscreen / insect repellent	we use the Class A shirts for dinners in the dining hall and ceremonies
flashlight / water bottle

Optional Stuff:
 Pocket knife (widdling chip required)
 Pillow / stuffed animal cardboard or groundcloth to place on bunk backpack (daypack) / fishing stuff
 folding camp chair
 clothesline (15 feet should be ok)
 pen / paper / postage stamps
 a clothes hanger for your uniform
 camera / sunglasses

Absolutely Required:
 Camping Physical
 LHC supplemental form
 copy of Insurance Card
 Swimming Test results
 Medications in original containers
ADULTS:
 Printed copies of your Youth Protection and Clearances
 Photo ID