“ Scouting doesn't just teach skills – it shapes good humans. As a parent, I see the impact every day. I watch my child grow more confident, more responsible, and more compassionate with every meeting, campout, and service project. Scouting has a way of bringing out the best in kids, helping them discover who they are and who they want to become. It's more than a program – it's a foundation for character, leadership, and lifelong values. ”

– Katy Logreco, mother of Star Scout Gavin Logreco
